SIR:

In response to the official action dated 11/09/04, enclosed herewith is an amended Fig.1, in which the microwave source is shown. It was thought, that this figure showing also the microwave source (added to the figure as received from Applicant) had already been submitted at the time of filing.

In any case, the Examiner has allowed all the claims.

With the amended Fig. 1 showing the microwave source 11 (as described on page 9, lines 9/10 of the description) the Examiner's objection to the drawing should be overcome so that the application is now ready for the issuance of the Notice of Allowance, which is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

K. Bach
